SILENCE

A silhouette of a tree stands on a lake at sunset. The sky is filled with vibrant orange and yellow clouds, reflecting on the water. The tree's branches are intricate and spread out, creating a dark shape against the bright background. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

"SILENCE IS THE PLACE TO LOSE
YOURSELF AND THEN FIND YOURSELF
AGAIN"

The meeting of four eclectic musicians, who love to experiment, who experience music as a form of pure communication, classical, jazz and world music come together giving life to a unique sound.

Daniela Savoldi is an Italian-Brazilian cellist. She loves to define her encounters with the instrument as sound strokes; her compositions are a synthesis of her musical, theatrical and dance experiences. She has recorded with her cello for: Muse, Le Luci Della Centrale Elettrica, Dente, Paola Turci, Nada Malanima, Folco Orselli and many other artists on the Italian scene. She has collaborated with dance and theater composing original music for "Progetti e Regie", "Collettivo Clochart", "Lelastiko", "Aterballetto", "Gabriele Parrillo". Some of her original music was chosen for the docufilm "The Man of Trees" by Sardinian director Tore Manca, released in 2019 and awarded at the Eco Film Festival in London. In 2016 she released her first solo album "Trasformazioni".
